The Pet Fish: Part 1

Sam and Ann want
some pet fish. They get
in the van with Dad.
Here they are at the pet shop. The pet shop sells fish, dogs, and cats.
There are lots of fish—
red fish, black fish, and pink fish.

There are big fish and little fish. The little fish swim fast.

Ann and Sam like a little red fish. Ann wants a big black fish.

Sam wants a fish that is big and pink. Dad gets all 3 fish.

The man in the pet shop puts the fish in a bag. It is a plastic bag.

Then Dad gets them a big fish tank. They all go home in the van.

Center for the Collaborative Classroom™

A component of SIPPS® Beginning Level

SPS4-LB44