The Pet Fish: Part 2
Dad helps set up the fish tank. Sand goes on the bottom of the tank.

Then Ann puts in a big red shell. She puts in some rocks.
Sam has a little plastic ship. He wants to put it on a rock.

The little ship will be under the water. It will look as if it sank.
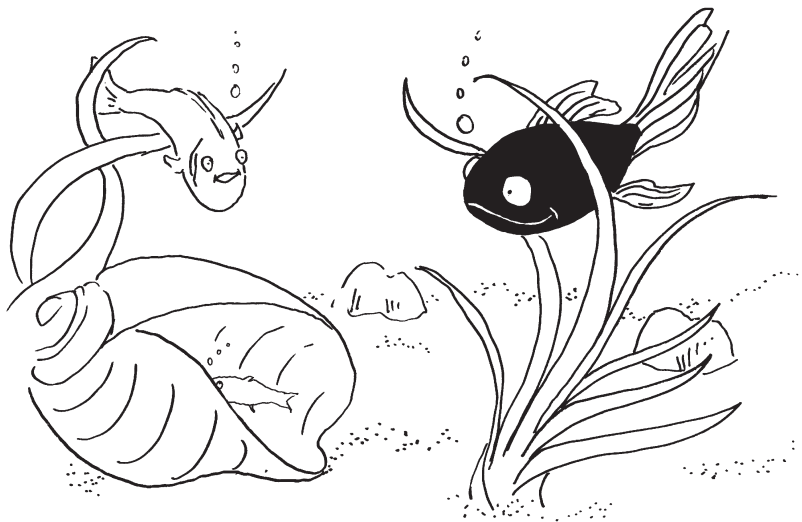

Dad puts in buckets of water. Then he puts some drops in the water.

Ann puts in some water plants. Fish like to swim in back of plants.

Then Dad gets the plastic bag with the fish.
He puts them in the tank.

The fish like the tank.
They like the shells, the ship, and the plants.

Center for the Collaborative Classroom™

A component of SIPPS® Beginning Level