The Thin Cat
An old woman comes to see Mom and Dad. She has a thin cat.
The cat is in a cat box. The woman lifts off the top of the cat box. Her cat comes out.
When the cat sees Riff, she hisses. Then she jumps on top of the woman.
The cat messes up her dress. The woman calls for help.

Riff runs around her legs.
The woman drops the cat box on the rug.

The thin cat jumps over the lamp. She lands in the fish tank.

Water spills all over. We
all help mop up the mess.

They say every cat has 9 lives. We think the thin cat has six left.

Center for the Collaborative Classroom™

A component of SIPPS® Beginning Level