

At the Pond

Ann and Sam go to the pond with Riff. One woman is on the swing.

A big man sits by the ducks.
He has some chips. The ducks quack and quack.

They want some chips. The man gives them some chips.
They like the chips a lot.

Some other ducks swim over to the man. They quack and quack. They want some chips.

Riff jumps up and runs toward the man. The ducks flap their wings.

“Quick,” says Ann. “We have got to stop Riff.” She grabs him by the neck.

The ducks go back to the water.

Ann tells Riff, “You have to quit this. The chips are for the ducks. I will give you a dog snack when we get home.”
